

The Sue Leather Associates Online Scholarship

Sue Leather Associates (www.sueleatherassociates.com) is an international educational consultancy group. We work globally, providing ELT consultancy and training for organisations and institutions. We form partnerships to support educational projects and create learning programmes that address local situations in culturally sensitive ways. We also run online courses which support ELT projects and educational leaders and managers around the world.

This award funded by Sue Leather Associates is for all those interested in leadership and management in ELT. Past scholarship winners have come from Turkey, Syria and Nepal.

The award consists of:

- a fully funded 7- week online course in 'Fundamentals of Project Management'

To qualify you must:

- live and work in a developing country
- have 5-6 hours per week available to study for the 7 weeks duration of the course
- have a reliable Internet connection for the duration of the course
- be able to undertake the course within one year of winning the award

To be considered you should send electronically:

- a statement of interest, between 200 and 300 words, mentioning how you will share your course learning experiences with your institution and/or colleagues in your own country (maximum two A4 pages)
- a passport size photograph

Deadline:

Submit the above to info@sueleatherassociates.com by February 20th 2018.
